DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hennequin et al (WO 01/32651) in view of Gorski et al.

Claims 1-3 are drawn to a method for the treatment of cancer and a method for the production of an antiangiogenic and/or vascular permeability reducing effect in a warm-blooded animal, which comprises administering ZD6474 with an effective amount of ionizing radiation.

Hennequin et al discloses a method for the treatment of cancer, solid tumors in particular (p.28, lines 11-17), and a method for the production of an antiangiogenic and/or vascular permeability reducing effect in a warm-blooded animal (p. 26, lines 10-14), which comprises administering a compound of formula I (p. 3). ZD6474 is specifically identified as a compound of Formula I (claim 8). Hennequin et al further teaches that this treatment may additionally include radiotherapy administered simultaneously, sequentially or separately (p. 26, lines 22-30).

Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use ZD6474 with concurrent radiotherapy in the treatment of cancer and in the production of an antiangiogenic and/or vascular permeability reducing effect in a warm-blooded animal, thus resulting in the practice of the instantly claimed invention with a reasonable expectation of success.

Applicant's data (Specification, pages 22-24) displays synergism between ZD6474 and sequential radiation therapy. The prior art indicates that this synergistic effect is expected. Gorski et al teaches that VEGF inhibitors, a class of compounds of which ZD 6474 is a member, administered with ionizing radiation results in greater than additive antitumor effects (p. 3378, paragraph 1).
